Re: Notice of Ex Parte Communication
MM Docket Nos. 00-168 and 00-44

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Thursday, February 7, 2013, Jane Mago and the undersigned of the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) met with Hope Cooper, Greg Elin, William Lake, Mary Beth Murphy, John Norton, and Holly Saurer of the Media Bureau and Elizabeth Andrion and Lyle Elder of the office of Chairman Genachowski.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss television stations' online political files. NAB reiterated, consistent with our supplemental comments, the practical issues that have arisen from broadcasters' being uniquely positioned by the Commission's rules in the highly competitive commercial video marketplace. Supplemental Comments of NAB, MM Docket Nos. 00-168 and 00-44 (filed March 8, 2012). We also discussed various methods, by which data could be uploaded to the Commission's online public filing system to reduce to the burden on both broadcasters and to facilitate information gathering by members of the public.

Finally, we discussed the technical glitches associated with the recent merging of the Commission's CDBS database and the online public file database. We expressed our gratitude to the Media Bureau's staff for their continued efforts to work closely with television broadcasters to identify and remedy any outstanding errors associated with the online public file.

Please direct any questions regarding these matters to the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,
